Head Judge of miliboo International Professional Photography Competition, 2023:

Mr. Collins Ryàn – L'artiste, Auckland, New Zealand

miliboo is proud to have secured the participation of Collins Ryàn – L'artiste from Auckland, New Zealand, as our head judge in our international competition. Collins is a well-known professional photographer, artist, international photography tutor, author of photography books, reviewer, critic, and multiple brands' international ambassador.

Collins' main specialization is in drama. His work is known for its significant dramatic appeal, with increased shadows and lights emphasis, instead of simply seeking the lights in the images.

His articles for any level in photography are well circulated over the internet and are written in several languages. For workshops and courses for the international audience, Collins' website is
